| Defendant. |) | |

The defendant has moved to continue the pretrial motion deadline. (Filing No. 24). Defense counsel explains that plea negotiations are ongoing, the outcome of which will determine if pretrial motions are warranted. Based on the showing set forth in the defendant's motion, the court finds the motion should be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) The defendant's motion to continue, (filing no. 24), is granted.
- 2) The defendant's pretrial motions and briefs shall be filed on or before July 25, 2011.
- 3) The ends of justice served by granting defendant's motion to continue outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between today and July 25, 2011, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, for the reason that the parties require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, the novelty and complexity of the case, and the fact that the failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).
- 4) Trial of this case is continued pending resolution of any pretrial motions filed.
